We wish you a merry Christmas and a happy New Year!

Hello readers, and welcome to the final CHASS newsletter for 2017.

We would like to thank you and all those who have supported us during the year - our members, sponsors, friends from industry organisations, and stakeholders.

Thank you for supporting our 2017 Australia Prizes, our annual endeavour to acknowledge and celebrate distinguished achievements in the Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences in Australia. We recognise the dedication of our jury members and thank them for their time and expertise. We also thank our sponsors and those who joined us for the 2017 CHASS Australia Prizes Dinner. Nominations for the 2018 Australia Prizes will open in March 2018; watch this space for more information.

We would like to acknowledge members who attended our 14th Annual General Meeting (AGM) in October 2017. The President's annual report can be downloaded here. Following the AGM, we invited nominations from member organisations for recent vacancies on our Board. Thanks to all those who have applied, all related announcements will be made early next year.

The CHASS office will remain closed from 23 December till 7 January. During this time, our daily media update service will be adjourned and our social media conversations will quieten down. For urgent queries, please contact us via email membership@chass.org.au.

May you have a wonderful and safe holiday season, and we look forward to catching up with you in 2018!
